Be Rid of Painful Corns

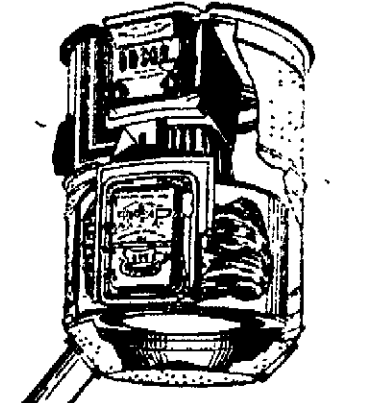

"Gels-It" Makes Them Loosen Up So They Lift Off Painlessly.

There's no more pain after a few drops of "Gels-It" lands upon corns or callus and instantly dries.

In a day or two you lift the old misery-maker right off without even feeling it. That's the last of Mr. Corn and the last of your misery. Millions who have lost their corns the "Gels-It" way say it is the only common-sense way to get rid of the pests.

"Gels-It" is the never-failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover. Get it at a drug store. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

ATTEST: J. P. HENRY, City Treasurer.

STATE GRANGE OUT FOR NEW MEMBERS

The New York State Grange closed its sessions at Rochester Friday night with the installation of its new officers. W. N. Giles is the new master and will remove the master's office to his home at Skaneateles. He is succeeded as state secretary by H. J. Riley of Sennett, Cayuga county.

A special feature of the closing session was a series of presentations to the retiring state master, S. J. Lovell, who becomes the new national master, and Mrs. Lovell. The overseer, Albert Manning, on behalf of the delegates in general, presented a traveling bag and a diamond ring and a substantial gift to Mrs. Lovell. Frank J. Sherman, on behalf of the state deputies association, presented Mr. Lovell with a gold watch. Later in the afternoon Charles Whetham, chairman of the Chautauque county delegation, and on behalf of that delegation, presented to Mr. Lovell a silver loving cup.

The work of the concluding day was largely on the adoption of resolutions of state and national importance. The statements of the National Grange at Grand Rapids, Michigan, opposing disorder, nationalization, asking for the return of railroads to private ownership, and for reasonable immigration restriction, were approved and readopted by a special resolution.

Good roads came in for fair treatment. The resolutions endorse the principle of "pay as you go" and oppose big bond issues, but ask that state construction of roads continue, and that special aid be given to counties working on the county road plan.

The daylight law the subject of 21 resolutions, all demanding immediate repeal. A strong resolution to this effect was passed, and arrangements made for the appearance of the officers, legislative and executive committees and as many other delegates as could do so to attend the hearing at Albany soon to be held on the Betts bill to repeal the state law.

Hunting was considered and a resolution adopted asking that a law be passed making it a misdemeanor to hunt or trap on any land without the written permission of the owner.

A pure food bill, like the one defeated at Albany last year, was adopted. A resolution asking for the imposition of a straight tax of $2.50 on each man or woman between 21 and 65 to be used to pay off the state debt was favorably reported by the legislative committee, but tabled after some discussion on the floor.

Real constructive work on the problem of the rural schools was begun by the adoption of a report asking the state master to appoint a committee to study the whole problem and report at the next Grange session. A resolution for a minimum wage law for school teachers was tabled, and also a proposition to increase the fund for academic departments from $100 to $1,000.

Some financial changes were approved, increasing the salaries of the state master and secretary $300 each, increasing the dues to the State Grange to 7 cents a quarter, and increasing the dues to the National Grange from 5 to 8 cents per year. Invitations from Binghamton and Utica were received and referred to the State Grange executive committee.

A slogan for the year, proposed by the state deputies association is "Ten thousand new members." State Master Lovell in a closing address expressed his desire to "put a Grange in every star of the flag." This refers to the fact that there are now but 73 State Granges. This sentiment was enthusiastically received, and goes out as the watchword for the Grange for the coming year.

AMENDMENTS IN LEGISLATURE

Republicans Introduce Measures To Reorganize State Government Along Lines Proposed By Smith's Reconstruction Commission.

Constitutional Amendments to put into effect the recommendations of the Reconstruction Commission as to Reorganization of State Government were introduced simultaneously in both Houses of the Legislature Monday night by Assemblyman Warren I. Lee of Brooklyn and Senator Leonard W. H. Gibbs of Buffalo. Both introducers are Republicans.

The introduction of these measures by Republicans will emphasize the non-partisan nature of the proposed plan which is being supported by a large Citizens Committee, headed by George W. Wickersham, Frederick C. Tanner, Henry L. Stimson and others.

The proposed reorganization is along the lines proposed by the Constitutional Convention of 1917, and put into effect by Governor Lowden at Illinois. It aims at the reduction in the number of elective officers, the consolidation of offices into a smaller number of departments and the vesting of power in the governor over these departments and over the preparation and introduction of the budget embodying their needs.

There are three Constitutional Amendments, each incorporated in a separate bill. The first Amendment provides for an executive budget system, such as is in effect in a number of states in the union, and is about to be adopted by Congress for the Federal Government. The second Amendment, provides that the term of the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be four instead of two years. The third Amendment provides that the Comptroller shall be the only other elective executive officer and shall have wide powers of audit and check on the Administration. This Amendment also provides for nineteen civil departments in the State Government. All new offices or boards must be placed in one of these departments.

If adopted at this and the next session of the Legislature, these Amendments will be voted on by the people in November, 1921.

Owing to the Lincoln celebration Thursday evening, the mid-week meeting will be held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Whitaker.

Thomas Moran was outdoors today for the first time since his return home from the skin and cancer hospital.

John Crispino, commonly known as John Cafaldo, a son by a former husband, of Mrs. Mike Cafaldo, died at his home here Tuesday morning, aged thirty-three years. He was popular with everyone because of his cheerfulness and kindness. The funeral services will be held in St. Joseph's Church, Wednesday, the Rev. Father Dilorio officiating.

Washington, D. C., displayed their usual public spirit and won the renewed gratitude of the people of Glasco by sending a gang of men with a snow plow drawn by six horses to open the village roads after the recent heavy fall of snow.

Allgerville, Feb. 10.—A clam chowder supper will be served at the home of Mrs. Mary Schoonmaker on Saturday evening, February 11.

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it?

"You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever see any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over:

We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simon-pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

How's the Velvet holding out in your old red tin?

KINGSTON, N. Y., FEB. 11, 1920.

The snow and the flu did great things last week. What the snow didn't do the flu did. They both stopped the wheels in more places than one. But we must take things as they come and make the best of them.

Too many soloists will ruin the best choir ever organized. They all fight to be heard and this prevents harmony. It is the same way in some political organizations. When every member wants to be leader, or the soloist, so to speak, there is danger ahead.

If some one would tell the people of this great country something about the physical and mental condition of President Wilson it would be welcome information to which the people are entitled. No one wants to know anything about the personal or private affairs of Woodrow Wilson but they are concerned relative to the condition of President Wilson. Holding back has been fine food for imagination.

PULPIT AND POLITICS.

Nobody will deny Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant the right to be a parlor Socialist if he wants to be one, or his right freely to express his opinions, provided such expression stops short of seditious propaganda. In his letter to Dr. Grant, Bishop Burch of the Episcopal diocese of New York, discussing Dr. Grant's comparison of the Buford's cargo of deportees with the freedom-seeking passengers on the historic Mayflower, admits the soundness of "the great principle of freedom of speech and of discussion," but deplores "the fact that freedom of speech is so frequently abused and becomes the foundation for license to utter seditious opinions clearly subversive of reverence for constituted authority, or if you please, law and order." The most serious question in Dr. Grant's case is pointed out when his bishop recalls that the Church of the Ascension in New York was in its dedication separated "from all unhallowed, worldly and common uses."

In other words, had Dr. Grant a right to transform a pulpit devoted to ecclesiastical or religious uses into a forum devoted to political discussion and propaganda? Bishop Burch thinks not and all conservative observers will agree with him. Dr. Grant's political views are of questionable soundness and of doubtful sanity—from the conservative point of view. But even if they were universally approved the propriety of proclaiming them from the pulpit would still be open to question. Harm is done and capacity for usefulness impaired unless the line between the clergyman and the politician is as clearly marked as that between ecclesiastical and civil affairs. The politician of the pulpit might better serve the higher calling by leaving it to enter the more worldly field of endeavor.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Although the work of the legislature is being held up to some extent by the hearings before the Judiciary committee of the assembly, local measures are being considered at night sessions of both houses. After the Socialist hearings are concluded the remanent business of either branch of the law-making department should be handled with dispatch, and there is really nothing to interfere with an adjournment at the usual period.

Hearings are now under way on the appropriation bill, which will shortly be ready for consideration. With this out of the way attention will be given to the measure which will provide for a restoration of the state convention. This proposal will undoubtedly create more or less debate which will be read with interest. Another matter which will receive consideration is that relating to action on prohibition.

Bills which have been introduced by Senator George F. Thompson and Assemblyman Black which provide for a commission to fix the price of milk, have met with successful opposition. The bills are the subject of a conference with the Milk committee and would give the governor the power to appoint the commission which would fix the price and invest $150,000 of public money in the milk business. Agricultural organizations have been prompt in their opposition to the measures and have been active in informing legislators of their objections. There is no bill before the legislature which has created more interest than this and it would seem as if antagonism were increasing.

Legislative leaders are planning a measure which will contain some regulations as regards distribution in which provision may be made whereby it will be optional with cities to establish zones for distribution. Under this system a dealer would be limited to certain territory.

There are other matters to come before the law-making department, but the legislators should be able to finish their work early in April as those mentioned are among the most important.

WON SEVEN STRAIGHT

Fleischmanns Beats Stamford By Score 39-26.

The Fleischmanns high school basketball five traveled to Stamford Friday night where they won from the Stamford Seminary by the score of 39-26. The game was fast throughout, with Fleischmanns forcing the play. Stamford scored a field goal for the starter, which was followed a moment later by a foul and field goal by Jocelyn. The lead changed hands many times during the first half, and at the end of twenty minutes of hard playing the score was 14-14.

Stamford took the lead at the start of the second half, thanks to the fine shooting of Harper and Sutton. But Fleischmanns rallied together and with their speed and passwork under control, it was evident that they were on the road to their seventh straight victory. Earl, left forward of Fleischmanns, was the star in this half with five field goals to his credit. The final score was 39-26.

Jocelyn, playing center in Faulkner's absence, was the star of the game, caging seven field goals and three fouls for a total of seventeen points. Barrett and Earl were too fast for their guards and scored ten field goals between them. Persons and Shaver, playing the defense, put up a splendid game. The line-up: Fleischmanns—Barrett, l. f., 4; Earl, r. f., 16; Jocelyn, c., 17; Persons, l. g., 9; Shaver, r. g., 2. Stamford Seminary—Johnson, l. f., 0; Sutton, r. f., 9; Tooley, c., 0; Harper, l. g., 17; Corbin, r. g., 0.

COMPENSATION CLAIMS.

To Be Handicapped Unless It Gets Appropriation.

By Telegram to The Freeman, Albany, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Unless the legislature immediately enacts an emergency deficiency appropriations bill to provide funds for the adjudication by the state industrial commission of workmen's compensation claims, the commission faces the necessity of discontinuing the services of numerous employees and the adjustment of such claims. Governor Smith notified the legislature Tuesday in a special message. The governor asks that an appropriation be made immediately available to the commission.

ST. REMY.

St. Remy, Feb. 11.—This community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of William Merritt. He had been ill only a few days when pneumonia set in and he died on Saturday night, at the age of 37 years. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Merritt and the main support of his aged parents, who have the heartfelt sympathy of this neighborhood in their bereavement. The funeral was held from the St. Remy Reformed Church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. J. Miller, of Fonda, Burch, preached the sermon. The order of service, to which he belonged, performed their order of services. He also belonged to the Order of Moose of Kingston. Interment was in the St. Remy cemetery.

There was no preaching in the Reformed Church on Sunday. The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Smith of Rifton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Worth on Sunday.

The worst snow storm in the season came on Thursday last. The roads were blocked so that traffic was stopped for a few days. The state attempted to come through on Friday and got as far as the Charles Thompson place and was compelled to come back. On Sunday parties from Rifton with 8 horse teams before a snow scraper leveled up the road but left it in bad shape to pass coming in the opposite direction.

Many thanks are extended to the neighbors and Red Men, who so kindly helped shovel at the cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

An account of the storm last Thursday, the Ladies' Aid Society did not hold its meeting. They will meet this week on Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Luther Frost's.

There was no school last Thursday or Friday and the holidays are not broken yet so that the children can get out.

LOW EXCHANGE HITS FARMERS

Large Decrease in Production
Coming Year As Result of Falling
Prices. Due To Drop in Exports.

E. R. Eastman, Editor of the Dairymen's League News.

The rapid decline of exchange value of foreign money is upsetting business and trade conditions. The English pound sterling reached the lowest mark in its history on February 4 when it dropped to $3.18. It closed on Saturday at $3.24. The value before the war was $4.85. The money of several other European countries has dropped even more in comparison with the American dollar than the English pound.

As a result of the exchange situation the stock market is off, and practically every business affected directly or indirectly by export conditions is slowing up. A few months ago it was impossible to get sufficient shipping space for exporting. Now there is too much, and ocean freight rates are declining.

Farmers are hard hit by the decline of foreign money. Urged to produce heavily to feed the world, they find after paying high prices for material and labor needed to produce, that they must sell in many cases the products at heavy loss. Many of the pork and beef producers of the central west have been nearly ruined. Dairymen throughout the whole country are now producing milk at a loss.

The result to the country and to the world is serious for it means curtailment of production when the world is in most need of supplies. There is no lack of desire to buy American products in Europe, but only inability to do so because of the decline of their credit.

Farmers like other business men cannot long produce at a loss. They cannot compete with other industries in hiring labor. The result is that in a large number of cases there will be planted this spring only what the farmer and his own family can care for without hiring and without investing too heavily in seeds, fertilizer and machinery.

A questionnaire recently sent out in the United States Post Office Department to several hundred thousand farmers showed a general trend of farm population to the city, and plans for a general and large decrease in production for the coming season.

SUPERSTITIOUS?

Then Attend the Kaseys' Ball and Drive Away Jinxes.

Did you ever walk under a ladder? Did a black cat ever cross your path? Do you believe in spooks? Did you ever break a mirror? Did a cross-eyed girl bid you the time of day? Did you ever dream of snakes? Did you spill any salt? Did you fall upstairs? Are you particularly superstitious about the fact of the 13th falling on Friday? Most almanacs, dream books and other authorities on jinx craft agree that people afflicted with a long and persistent jinx can rid themselves of it on a day when the planets are in the position that they occupy only when the 13th falls on Friday. People should relax and enjoy themselves for a jinx can't stick where everyone's happy.

With this in mind, the Knights of Columbus have arranged their Kasey Black Cat Dance on Friday, February 13, for the benefit of the be-jinxed and dancing public of Kingston so that they can dance round their jinxes. Curt Shurtler's singing orchestra has been engaged for the affair.

To Remove It From Eye.
Small foreign bodies which are not imbedded in the eyeball may often be removed by going into a dark room, looking up toward the lighting fixture, then turning the light on quickly, writes Frederick C. Davis of St. Joseph, Mo., in Popular Mechanics Magazine. If the light is strong enough, it will cause a violent reaction which will cause the particle to be washed to the corner of the eye. It is then easily removed by means of a clean cloth.

EDISON, 73, IDLE FOR FEW HOURS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 11.—Thousands of messages are pouring in congratulating Thomas A. Edison, the electrical wizard, who celebrated his 73rd birthday today. True to his traditions, Mr. Edison had intended to spend the day hard at work in his laboratory but when he learned of the preparations that had been made to observe the day he decided to "take a few hours off." The whole city is decorated in honor of the occasion. Tonight Mr. Edison will attend a dance of the "Thomas A. Edison Association."

In a birthday statement Mr. Edison deplored the tendency on the part of the modern youth to shirk work. "I can remember when it used to be fashionable to be ambitious, but there seems to have been a change in late years," said he. "The eight hour day had not been invented when I was a young man and I am glad of it. I do not believe I could have accomplished a great deal on the eight hour principle."

"Hard work is the secret of success and happiness and I think that idea is practically applicable right now. But I am not against the eight hour day or any other measure that protects labor from exploitation by ruthless employers. I have seen a great many birthdays but I hope I can borrow the trade mark of one whiskey to say I am still going strong even in the eighteenth amendment is in effect."

NO GREATER TAXES

But Investment in Education Must Continue, Says Eastman.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Himself a former country school teacher and keenly interested in the rural school problem, E. R. Eastman, editor of the Dairymen's League News, told a farmers' week audience at Cornell today that while he is opposed in general to greater taxation at this time, he feels that state and nation must put more money into the education of the young.

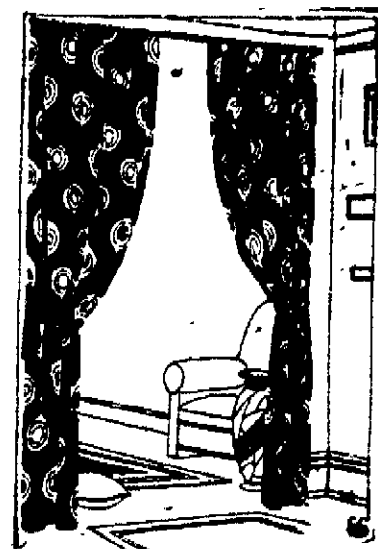

"They must look at this money, he said, as an investment and not as an expense. Better salaries must be paid and better facilities must be offered, he said, if the country is to make in the future the educational progress it had made in the past. "I believe the problem of education is an increasingly serious one in this country," he said, "and when I left the teaching business I did not lose my interest in this great work."

Vacuum Harvester.

One of the curious suggestions made in the Southwest for the saving of wheat at harvest is the use of vacuum cleaners. The idea is that machines of the proper construction could run over the fields and gather up the loose heads of wheat where the grasshoppers had eaten the stalks. In some cases 50 per cent of the heads were lying on the ground as the result of this insect activity. Some farmers use close-toothed rakes with more or less success. Others plow the wheat and rake it up. It is possible the "vacuum harvester" is on the way.

DECIDES FLU QUARANTINE IS NOT NECESSARY

Health Board Hears Cases Are Mild With But Two City Deaths of Pneumonia—409 Cases of Measles—Peter B. Keller Bids $500 for Contagion Hospital—Officers' Reports.

"A city quarantine with the closing of the theaters and schools is not necessary," said Dr. Frank A. Johnston, health officer, at the monthly meeting of the board of health as he made his report on the influenza situation in Kingston. He said that he had talked with a number of prominent physicians of the city and they were of the opinion that a quarantine was not necessary.

Dr. Johnston said that Dr. A. A. Stern was the only physician who had suggested closing the theaters, but he had informed Dr. Stern that the reports received did not show the need of quarantining the city. All of the cases reported were of a mild nature, with but few pneumonia cases. There had been no deaths from the flu as yet in Kingston, and but four deaths from pneumonia, two of them being out of town residents who came here to be treated. The board agreed with Dr. Johnston that the present situation did not require the quarantining of the city.

409 Cases of Measles.
It was reported that in January 263 cases of measles had been reported in Kingston and since February 1, 106 new cases were reported, making 409 cases of the disease reported since the first of the year.

Keller Is High Bidder.
The board recently advertised for sealed bids for the sale of the contagion hospital on Albert street, and four replies were received. The bids were opened that evening and reported. The bids follow: Joseph A. Murray, $350; Joseph A. Bowers, $400; Harry DuBois, $415; and Peter B. Keller, $500.

Mr. Keller's bid being the highest, was accepted, subject to the approval of the common council.

He Who Shovels Not His Walk.
(By A. W. F.)

Some men may go to heaven
And some may go to—well;
Just where the others go Iq
The books will never tell.

But all the same it's patent
There's no need of any talk,
As to where the man will go to
Who shovels not his walk.

He cares not how much trouble
He may cause for you and I,
Should we fall upon his sidewalk
He'd not even drop a sigh.

He thinks not of law or order,
He's as free as any hawk;
And he's too confounded shiftless
To shovel his front walk.

But when he gets to Hades
We will find a nice front seat,
Where he will find no trouble
In the warming of his feet.

And when in time he reaches
This place where he will go,
He'll never there be called upon
To shovel any snow.

Mrs. Vincent Astor

The problem of the alien in America was the subject of addresses by many prominent persons at the sixth anniversary meeting of the League of Foreign-Born Citizens, held recently in the home of Mrs. Vincent Astor, in New York. A better mutual understanding and closer co-operation for the good of both sides was the keynote of the speeches. Mrs. Astor, who is a member of the advisory board of the league, in an address, said there was need for the sort of work the league was doing in making newly arrived citizens accustomed to American ideals and methods. She declared that the prejudiced American was more dangerous to the country than the misbegotten foreigner.

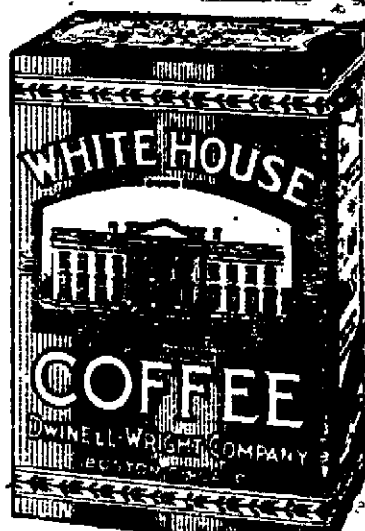

Stall of infant chess prodigy starts Berlin

The uncanny skill at chess of little Samuel Roushewski, six years old, has caused considerable comment in the German capital. The youngster recently played twenty-two games of chess simultaneously and defeated sixteen of his opponents. The twenty-two players were seated outside a long table with Samuel in the center. The prodigy would make a play at one table and then move to the next, and so on down the line until he had engaged all his opponents in play.

Invitations were issued last week for the Ulster County Agricultural Society banquet to be held in the Hunt Memorial Hall Thursday evening, February 12. The dinner is to be served by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and the affair on Lincoln's birthday will be an occasion suitable to the anniversary of the great man. The Woman's Auxiliary to Missions met at St. John's rectory Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock.

The chief and members of Napanog Tribe, I. O. R. M., assembled at the wigwam on Friday, sleep at the 8th run at which time several palefaces were initiated into the mysteries of the order. After the quenching of the council fire a convocation of hay-makers was held, there being a candidate for companionship and a true believer in fun and good fellowship.

Oliver Kidney has sold his farm at the Cape to out of town parties. The house was partially destroyed by fire a few weeks ago.

No preaching services were held at the M. E. Church Sunday on account of the illness of the pastor, Rev. Charles A. Dunn. Sunday school was held at the regular hour and a large number of members present.

Regular services were held at Christ's Lutheran Church. The theme of the pastor, Rev. G. M. Ketner at the morning sermon was "The Parable of the Sower." The theme for the vespers at 7:30 p. m. was "The Martyrdom of Stephen."

In a long list of nominations mostly for postmaster occupying some dozen or more pages in the Congressional Record sent to the senate January 13, appears the following: William L. Fuller to be postmaster at Ellenville, N. Y., to succeed C. H. Hornbeck, deceased. It is understood Mr. Fuller, while Republican, stood highest on the civil service list for the appointment. Mr. Fuller fills the position as postmaster in the local office several years and was considered a good official.

Regular services were held in the Reformed Church on Sunday. The pastor, Rev. W. S. Matson, delivered two excellent sermons. The theme of the morning sermon was "Who are Christ's own?" The subject of the evening address, "Fishers For Men." The music by choir and congregation under the efficient leader S. A. Van Wageningen was much enjoyed.

The regular meeting of the Gamma Sigma was held in the lecture room of the Reformed Church Monday evening. The leader, Miss Ellen Watson, Topic, "The Significance of the Conversion of Cornelius."

ENCOURAGES PEACH GROWERS

Speaker at Farmers' Week at Cornell Advises Growers in Proved Sections to Replant Orchards.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 11.—New York peach growers to be encouraged, in the opinion of E. H. Anderson, superintendent of the perishable freight division of the New York Central Railroad, who delivered an address on the farmers' week program at Cornell University yesterday.

The past eight years have been a period of discouragement, he pointed out, largely because 1912 and 1915 were heavy producing years in all peach territories, and because the severe winter of 1917-18 raised a hub with the orchards.

While no one can foresee weather conditions, the speaker expressed the belief that peach growers may expect to rear several generations of peach trees before similar weather conditions will again be encountered. As for the heavy crops of 1912 and 1915 again being encountered, Mr. Anderson said that the competing peach areas outside of New York are losing their producing power faster than are the western New York areas.

Mr. Anderson drew the conclusion, therefore, that peach growers are justified in immediately replanting the proved peach sections of the state, paying special attention to the selection of good shipping varieties and placing the orchards on well drained land.

The scarcity of peach trees and their high price should not deter, he said, because one bushel of peaches will buy four or five peach trees at present prices of peaches, which may be expected to hold until after another heavy planting has come into bearing.

Patriotic Church Service.

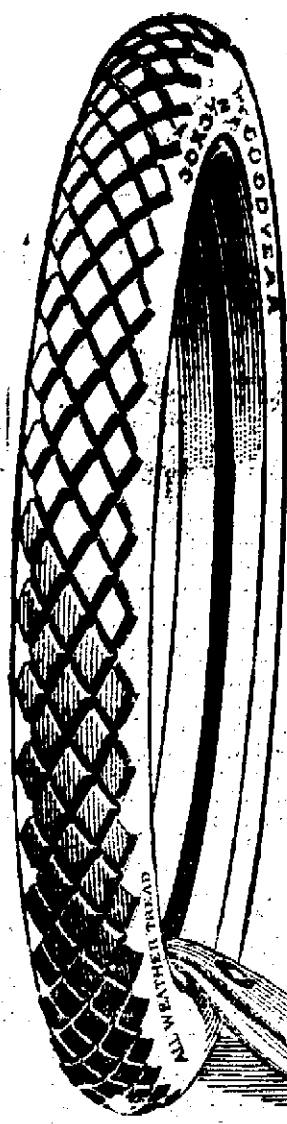

Sunday evening, February 15, the service at the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will be patriotic in character. The pastor will deliver a sermon bearing upon the lives of the great American statesmen born in the month of February, especially Lincoln. A chorus choir will lead in songs appropriate to the occasion. We are living in times when we will do well to review again the lives of some of the men who have guided the affairs of our nation in very critical moments—this service will be what you help to make it.

Orville Harrington.

Orville Harrington, an employee of the United States government mint in Denver, who has admitted stealing approximately $100,000 in gold bullion from the mint. He hid the gold in a cavity of his wooden leg, and in the course of several weeks carried out gold valued at the above amount. Harrington, a mining engineer, college graduate, and widely travelled, was a trusted employee of the mint. He lived with his wife and two children in a beautiful home in University Park. When arrested by Secret Service agents, Harrington told a story unparalleled in fiction, of how he planned to secure a fortune from the mint which would ensure a life of ease for himself and family. He cached his stolen riches behind a "false" wall in the cellar of his home where federal agents found it. Harrington claims his wife, a refined woman and college bred, knew nothing of the thefts which had baffled the mint officials for nearly two months.

Big Value in Tires for Small Cars

Back of the manufacture of Goodyear Tires for small cars is the same purpose to supply high value in the product that is behind the manufacture of the Goodyear Tires that equip the most expensive automobiles built.

This purpose is expressed by the enormous resources, extraordinary skill and scrupulous care applied to the manufacture of Goodyear Tires in the largest tire factory in the world devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The effect of this endeavor is noted in the fact that last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

It is also noted in the fact that, if you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car requiring the sizes mentioned, you can secure Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Goodyear Service Station.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread..... $20.90
30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water—$3.90 proof bag.

Metacalhons, Feb. 11.—Owing to the very bad and impassable condition of the roads it was impossible to hold the contemplated social and entertainment on Friday evening last, so the date has been postponed until Friday evening, February 12, when it will be held at the Metacalhons school house, unless stormy. Everybody is cordially invited to be present. The free entertainment promises to be good as will also be the ice cream and cake, and coffee, which will be for sale afterwards. All come who can and enjoy a fine evening and a pleasant evening among your friends.

Mr. Gabley has only missed one day this winter as this village of reaching this station, which was last Thursday, when the storm and roads were very bad. At many places on his mail route on Thursday this was the first sleigh through. His many patrons along the route are much pleased with his interest in getting the mail delivered through the almost impassable roads.

Mrs. Anna Ryers of New York city has been visiting friends in this place for a few days.

SECTION MEN'S CASE STATED

Head of Ry. Maintenance Men Says Strike Called for Feb. 17 is Justified by Government's Delay in Raising Pay—Says No Agreement is Being Broken—Average Wage Now $8 Per Day.

By Telegram to The Freeman
Washington, Feb. 11.—Declaring railroad maintenance of way employees "have been ignored in their numerous petitions to the railroad administration to have their wages levelled up to a wage whereby a man can support his family as an American should," D. B. Malloy, grand vice president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Shop Employees denied today that his organization was breaking its agreement by calling a strike for February 17.

Malloy declared the railroad administration is reducing the railway workers to the "Mexican standard of living" by the small rates of pay and declared the agreement granted his union covers hours of service and working conditions only and does not refer to wages in any way, shape or form.

Malloy said the railroad administration "for the past eighteen months has been asking the officials of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers, who represent these men, to wait a few weeks until an investigation of demands could be made."

"The different boards, bureaus and bureaucrats of the railroad administration have had mighty conferences and many investigations and have at last decided that as the average daily wages of the section men as reported by the interstate commerce commission, is 'the enormous sum of $3 per day,' they are receiving a living wage and should save money for sickness or possible layoffs," Malloy continued. "I presume what the administration had in mind when they imported 9,998 contract Mexicans and picked up another lot of these Villa warriors along the border and scattered them from West Virginia to California and Montana to Texas, was to teach our American citizens to live by the Mexican standard, but the $3 a day would not cover their American needs. The fact that over 1,000 of these Mexicans deserted and are now in the United States committing depredations in a small Mexican way does not seem to be bothering the administration."

"The maintenance of way men who are now asking for another increase in pay consist principally of section men who have had no increase since September 1, 1918, who at that time only received 12 cents an hour providing this 12 cents should not raise the rate per hour above 40 cents per hour. As a result, 40 cents is the highest rate any section man working for the United States railroad administration can now receive and many are working for 28 cents per hour. A Jap window cleaner asks 75 cents per hour for his services, a bootblack that does not get $5 a day is a rarity. In fact no one that I can discover in the United States receives as low a rate of pay as the highest paid section men. These men should receive an adequate rate of pay to live and raise their families as an American should."

According to Malloy, the average wage for trackmen, the interstate commerce commission figures show, is 37 1/2 cents per hour. Malloy disputes these figures, declaring the average wage is only 34 cents per hour.

Owner of Common Mongrel Flock Will Soon Apologize for its Existence—Keep Pure-Breds.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

It will not be long before the owner of a common mongrel flock will apologize for its existence. This is the opinion of the poultry-extension worker of the United States department of agriculture who is a leader in the campaign for more and better poultry on farms in south and southwestern Arkansas. In many parts of Arkansas the importance of better poultry and more efficient management is being recognized by progressive business men, commercial organizations, bankers and others and they are active in their moral and financial support in co-operating with the government and state extension forces in their efforts to convince the farmer that standard-bred poultry properly managed is a paying industry and that the old barnyard mongrel hen must get out of the way for standard-bred, uniform flocks.

The county agent of Drew county has placed 50 pens of one male and four females each of pure-bred Barred Plymouth Rock and Rhode Island Reds on 50 farms, in charge of a boy and girl poultry-club member. The Monticello Chamber of Commerce and the banks of Monticello have advanced the money to purchase these pure-bred fowls and have assisted in their distribution. In addition to the 50 pens of chickens, over 100 sittings of pure-bred hatching eggs have been secured for the club boys and girls. The farm and home demonstration agents of Ashley, Union and Desha counties are busy with poultry-club work on farms and in the organization of poultry clubs. In each of these counties an effort is being made to double last year's poultry-club enrollments.

On March 12 the Southwestern Arkansas Poultry association was organized at Magnolia with 18 charter members. It is reported that practically every business man in the town has become a member and lend his influence and support for more and better poultry. Plans have been made to hold the state poultry show at Magnolia, November 25 to 28, where the fine aristocrats of the barnyard will be on display competing for the coveted American Poultry association gold medal offered to only one association in each state.

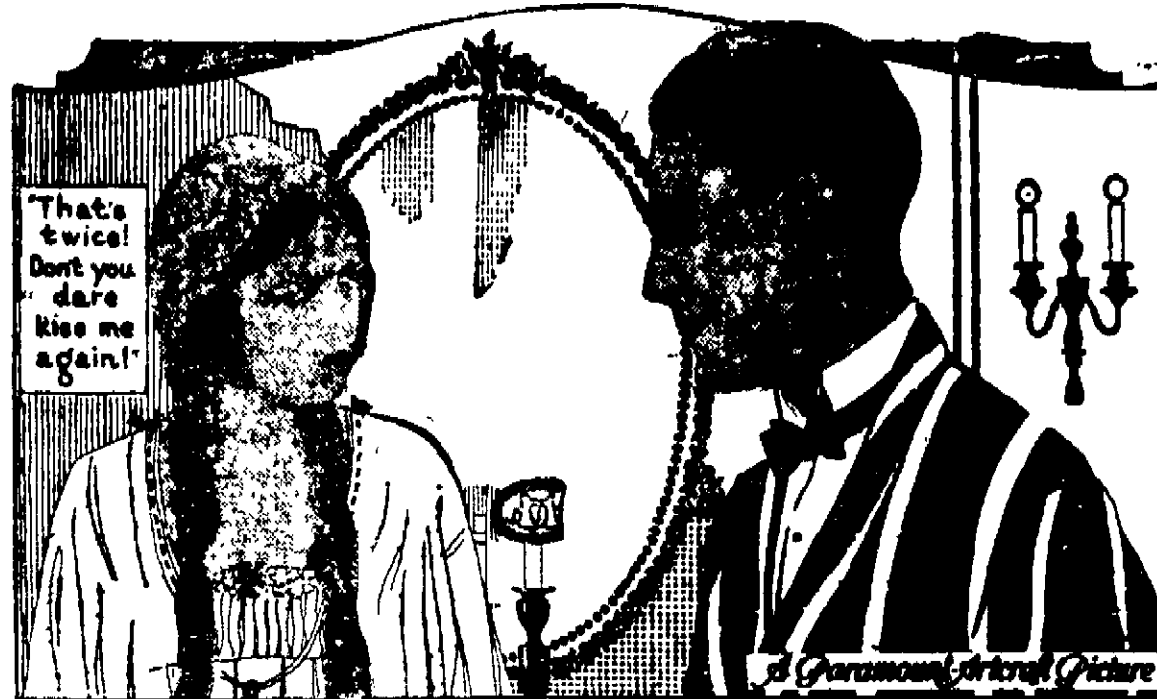

KEEPING POULTRY IN TOWNS

Especially in Suburbs of Large Cities Families Should Keep Small Flocks of Hens.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

When conditions render it feasible small flocks of poultry should be kept by families in villages, towns and especially in the suburbs of large cities. The need for this extension of poultry raising is particularly great where consumption exceeds production, as in the northeastern states. Through utilization of table waste, scraps and other refuse as poultry feed much wholesome food in the form of eggs and poultry for home use may be produced at relatively low cost.

Grief often deprives the stricken of their best judgment of what to do and how to do it. It is when death enters ones home that the presence of a friend is appreciated, and who can offer suggestions, give a kind word, and in countless ways relieve the bereaved family of many little details.

And who so well understands these small touches that so far as is humanly possible take away the sting, but a woman?

Associated with William C. Kukuk, who conducts The Funeral Home at No. 167 Tremper avenue, is his wife. REV. NICHOLS IS INSTALLED

New Pastor of Woodstock Church

Officially Assumes Duties—Rev. Appledorn Presides.

The installation of the Rev. John T. Nichols as pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church of Woodstock took place on Tuesday, February 10, at 2 o'clock. In the absence of the president of the Classis, the Rev. Leonard Appledorn, pastor of the Port Ewen Reformed Church, presided and read the form. Scripture reading and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Sherman of the Lutheran Church. The choir then rendered a selection. The sermon was to have been given by the Rev. Henry L. Nichols of Summit Hill, Pa., a brother of the pastor, failing to arrive the order of service was reversed and charge to pastor given in very able manner by the Rev. Mr. Blanchard of Ashokan Reformed Church. After singing a hymn, the Rev. L. Appledorn gave the charge to the people in a very plain yet forceful manner showing how necessary for both pastor and people to work together in harmony for the building up of Christ's Kingdom. The choir then rendered a selection following which the two brethren previously cast lots who should preach the sermon. The lot fell to Mr. Blanchard who proved himself fully equal to the occasion, taking for his text: 1 Samuel, 10-26. The Classis of Ulster are to be congratulated on having among their number two young men both able and willing to fill vacancy caused by those unable to be present, thus making the service profitable and interesting to all. A closing hymn was sung and the benediction pronounced by the newly installed pastor. After which the congregation and friends extended hearty congratulations to the new pastor.

Our U. S. A. Or The Reds.

That is what Senator Lusk will talk about in his lecture at the Armory on Friday evening. And it is a far more important matter than most of us realize, that we should know which is to win out, our United States government, or the Red lack of government, order or safety. The people who think that the danger of the latter is small should be sure to hear Senator Lusk on Friday evening and incidentally they will be supporting one of the those philanthropic organizations possible in a well established government, but not possible where there is no government: the home for the aged. Tickets may be had from Federation of Women's Clubs members, or secured at the door of the Armory, Friday evening.

MAKING STRAND
BUILDING SAFE

Workmen today were busy tearing down part of the big wooden structure of the Newark Lane & Cement Company on the Strand in Ponckhocke, which was damaged by fire about two years ago, and which was in a dangerous condition. The building is used by one of the shipyards at that point to store timber in. The outer walls of the building have been bulging out for some time, and it looked as though it would fall at any time. The building was in town only this week and after viewing the building ordered part of it torn down.

Port Ewen, Feb. 11.—Esopus Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the rooms in Spinnaker's Hall on Broadway.

LeGrand T. Boyle of Riverside, who has been ill, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDermott and daughter, Alice, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Roach on Tilden street, and attended the funeral of Mrs. McDermott's brother, John Roach, Wednesday.

A benefit lecture for the Home for the Aged at Kingston will be given by State Senator Clayton B. Lusk on "Americanism vs. Radicalism," at the New York state armory, Kingston, N. Y., on Friday evening of this week. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Federated Women's Clubs. Price of tickets, 50 cents. This is a most worthy object and we hope that many of our people will take advantage of the opportunity of hearing such a brilliant speaker on such a timely topic of the affairs of our country. Tickets for the lecture may be procured at C. W. Ford's drug store or at the home of Mrs. Alexander Secor.
